

Arun Parameswaran, MS, CPA

Arun Parameswaran is co-founder, Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer of InSourcePro (Formerly Astutant FPO), a revolutionary company focused on providing the accounting industry access to the brightest and best minds from around the globe and helping accounting firms seamlessly deliver high quality, timely and valuable services to their clients.

Arun has also founded and developed a chain of accounting firms focused on small to medium sized businesses which created the back- bone of Astutant Group of Companies in Florida. He still manages these firms today.

Arun is a serial entrepreneur, having founded and grown businesses starting at age 14. Arun holds a Masters degree in Accountancy from University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and a Bachelors degree in Accountancy from the University of Botswana. He is also a Certified Public Accountant, licensed to practice in Florida since 2005. Arun is a member of the American Institute of CPAs as well as the Florida Institute of CPAs. At 19, he was one of the youngest individuals ever to sit for and pass the CPA examination in the State of Illinois.

Arun has been featured in several publications, including BusinessWeek magazine's Top 25 Entrepreneurs in the US under 25 (2007), Gulfshore Business, Southwest Florida Business Daily, and the India New-England Business Journal.